Our life is a constant search, a search for the True self and the supreme self. This film is also search. 'Christaayan' is a way of understanding the life of Jesus and other characters in the Holy Bible. Cinematic or artistic excellence is not the prima facie aim but a Spiritual Saadhana, a way to God whereby the viewer may personalize a little more of peace, hope and proactive energy within. The approach is only fictional and not theological as a pointer to the Truth.

The film asserts the equality and integrity of womanhood. Most social structures keep women unequal to men with various convenient justifications. In India, She is the embodiment of all human goodness, compassion, love, forgiveness, gentleness, even to the extent of calling her Devi/goddess. But she needs empowerment, she needs emancipation, she needs more participation in decision making. Mother of Jesus, Mother Mary is a model of womanhood, liberated. She is confident that God is with her and she with God, 'Woman Full of Grace'.

Fr. John Wakhla SVD proposed the vote of thanks on behalf of Christaayan family and sweets were distributed after the programme.
