

From: Norbert Herman

Date: Wed, Apr 24, 2013 at 12:56 PM

Ishgarh parish bears a fruit in hundred years

Jhabua first Bhil priest Fr. Manoj Kharadi SVD, from Ishgarh parish was ordained by Most Rev. Devprasad Ganawa SVD. Villagers from far and near gathered in a pandal to bear a witness to hundred year fruit in the person of Fr. Manoj Kharadi. In a traditional Bhil culture he was brought in a procession, dancing and singing to the local tunes. While addressing Fr. Manoj and the august gathering Most Rev. Devprasad Ganawa said that the seed of evangelization were sown by the late Fr. Joachim Joseph Mocha SVD has brought fruit. It is indeed a moment of pride and joy to see that the word of God would be preached in East Tamor by Fr. Manoj Kharadi.

Fr. Telesphore Bilung, provincial of INE was delegated by East Tamor provincial to be present to the ordination ceremony. A large number of Priests, Nuns and faithful were present.

Dr. Norbert Herman
Maitri Sadan
30, Machla Magra
Patel Circle
Udaipur (Raj.)
Mob. 9460333970

