

ARNOLD MUSIC & DANCE ACADEMY (A.M.D.A) CONVOCATION DAY-2013

A month long Intensive Music & Dance Course at Arnold Music & Dance Academy, Jharsuguda, concluded with a colorful cultural program staged by 80 participants on 5th June, 2013.

The Director of the Academy, Fr. Sunil Damor, SVD extended a warm welcome to Mr. Tahalu Sahu (a renowned educationist), Rev. Fr. Telesphore Bilung, SVD (Provincial Superior, INE), Media Persons and all the dignitaries for the cultural evening. Highlighting the contributions of the Academy he said that since the year 2000 the Academy has been trying its best to preserve and promote the Musical and Cultural heritage of the country. He said that the Academy not only teaches Music & Dance but also gives value education and teaches discipline as the art of Music and Dance requires it to a great extent.

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Tahalu Sahu, the chief guest of the day said that Music and Dance has no age barriers. He stressed that it is important for every person to attain peace and harmony in whatever field of life he/she may be. He also lauded the efforts of the Academy for providing wonderful opportunity to students during holidays to learn the art and make use of the time.

Rev. Fr. Telesphore Bilung also appreciated the talents of the participants and congratulated them for their commendable achievement and wonderful stage show within a month.

The evening was made melodious and colorful by songs, music and dances staged by the students who had one month intensive training in Hindustani vocal, Keyboard, Tabla, Triple, Guitar, and dances like Odissi, Bharatnatyam, Western, Bollywood and Folk etc. The parents of the participants were overwhelmed and seen taking snaps of every action of their children on the stage. About four hundred audience including many priests and religious enjoyed the evening. Two and half hour long program came to an end with a colorful and energetic folk dance of Rajasthan.
