Thomas Mathew, the Guest of Honour, Fr. Nicholas Martis SVD, the President of the School, Fr. Johny D'Souza SVD, the Director of the School, other distinguished guests, parents and well wishers were welcomed with floral showers at the entrance of the school building. The programme began by imploring God's blessings through a lighting the traditional lamp and a prayer dance. Fr. Nicholas Martis SVD garlanded the bust of St. Arnold Janssen. On behalf of the Principal, Staff and Students of St. Arnold's School, Master Kausthubh Jha, a sixth standard student introduced the programme. Kumari Anushka Nagori, an eight standard student welcomed the dignitaries. Welcoming in Songs are little dew drops from heaven, sharing their happiness and joys with us. There was a group song sung by the students of seventh and eight standard. Being in a city, the students miss the serenity of nature, so the students took all the audience to Raniket an idyllic hill town which is known for the queen of fields through gawali, folk dance, followed by bamboo dance and still continuing the fun with Kummi dance from Goa. Br. Kishore Tigga SVD, the Principal gave a glimpse of the activities by presenting the annual report 2013 – 2014 of the school with the support of the PowerPoint Presentation. The school which began with 39 students has today 2232 students studying upto 8th Standard. It is a primary section of St. Arnold's School, Lalaramnagar, Indore and a co-ed school.

The students and teachers put their heart and mind to bring this mega event a successful one. Sr. Anjena Peter, Mrs. Leena Dixit, Mrs. Meena Malik and Mrs. Angela Francis were the mentors who facilitated the programme behind the curtain. Meanwhile the students gave information regarding solar system before every item. Shri Nirmal Sharma, a superintending engineer, city circle, Indore, the Chief Guest and Fr. Thomas Mathew, the Principal of St. Paul Higher Secondary School, the Guest of Honour congratulated the staff and students for the wonderful performances and enlightened the audience with their pearls of wisdom. Parents enjoyed the evening programme and happy with children's performance especially Tamil Dance, Karate, Hindi (इस देश का क्या होगा ?) and English (Emergent Student) Skits which added more enthusiasm and fun. Kumari Farhat Naaz Ansari, an eight standard student proposed vote of thanks. This cultural event came to an end with the National Anthem.
