

Children's Day Celebrated at St. Arnold's with zeal

November 14, 2013: It was indeed a special day for the students of St. Arnold's Lalaramnagar where the children's day was celebrated with full zeal and enthusiasm. The birth day of Pundit Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of India fondly nicknamed, as Chhacha Nehru, started off with a special assembly where the teachers conducted and the Principal, Br. Kishore Tigga SVD paid floral tribute to our first Prime Minister Jawarhalal Nehruji and was followed by prayer dance, fun skit, group song and a song which the teachers had prepared and presented for the students. He was very fond of children. On this occasion, medals and certificates were given to the winners of the different competitions which were held during this academic year. The principal, Br. Kishore Tigga SVD on behalf of all staff wished the students for the bright future and explained the significance of the day. The Head Girl proposed the vote of thanks.

Photos and Preparation: Br. Raju Soosai SVD

